

Longport Historical Society

Fall Scavenger Hunt

Community Center / Beach Patrol

“You have to go out, you don’t have to come back” is the unofficial motto of the Coast Guard; the Turner family of Longport has played an integral role in Longport Beach Patrol. Starting with Captain James Turner, who worked his way up the ranks in Longport, members of the Turner family have participated in and led the Longport Beach Patrol on countless rescues and saves. Turner even led the crew of the USCGC Travis, built to combat the rum-running trade.

Clues for next stop:

- Look up and your next stop will be happy to see you!
- This tall blue tower doesn’t actually hold any water.
- Head South (away from Margate) on Atlantic Avenue and turn right at 31st Avenue. Your next stop is on your left; if you reach Ventnor Avenue, you’ve gone too far!